The Int. MediaArtHistories Conf had the first edition in 2005 and has travelled since then around the world: Banff 2005, Berlin 2007, Melbourne 2009, Liverpool 2011, Riga 2013, Montreal 2015, Krems/Vienna 2017, Aalborg 2019, Session at CIHA São Paulo 2022, and Venice 2023. Recognizing the growing importance of art and technology, the goal is to involve the academic community from various disciplines to discuss the history of Media Art within the contexts interdisciplinary and intercultural.

The Festival Internacional de la Imagen is a landmark annual event in Latin America that has brought together art, design, science, and technology since 1997. Over its history, the festival has hosted over 100,000 attendees, 5,000 scholars and artists, and organized over 3,000 events, including exhibitions, conferences, live performances, and workshops. Since 2020, the Festival has been organized by Universidad de Caldas in Manizales in partnership with Universidad de Bogotá.
