Forming Feminisms: Current Approaches to Women, Art, and Gender at Utrecht University Art History.

Showcasing the work of staff and recent RMa graduates at Utrecht University Art History. Held in collaboration with Centraal Museum.

This event brings together the work of staff and recent graduates of the Research Masters programme in Art History at Utrecht University, all of whom are working on questions of gender, the category of the woman artist, feminist and queer approaches within modern and contemporary art. Coinciding with the major exhibition Good Mom/Bad Mom exhibition at Centraal Museum, this event focuses on institutional practices, feminist art histories, and decentering epistemological frameworks. Speakers will present new methodological insights into curating and collecting practices alongside discussions of form, representation, and visibility.

Friday 6th June 2025 12:30-17:00

Note that entry to the event requires a ticket to Centraal Museum. We strongly encourage you to view the Good Mom/Bad Mom exhibition ahead of the event.
