Sarah Miller, California College of the Arts

The Photography Network (PN) is seeking submissions for its annual project grants, designed to help emerging scholars, curators, and artists with funds needed to complete a work in progress. This grant will support the publication of a book or article, or the mounting of an exhibition that cannot be completed in its most desirable form without a subsidy. Funds can be used toward future expenses or to reimburse expenses already incurred. Grant proposals are due by June 15, 2025.

To submit, please email the Awards Coordinator Candice Jansen at photographynetworkawards@gmail.com with "PN Project Grant 2025" in the subject line. The Project Grant Submission must include:

- a 500-word description of the project
- a publishing or exhibition timeline
- a detailed budget
- a list of other funding sources (if any), and
- a current CV.

Applicants must be current members of the Photography Network. Not yet a PN member? Join here:

Note that PN does offer a limited number of free memberships in recognition of the uneven distribution of resources in the field.
