

Global and Forgotten Connections (Zachęta, 5 Feb 26)

Zachęta – National Gallery of Art, Feb 05, 2026

Wiktoria Szczupacka

Global and forgotten connections: the circulation of visual arts between socialist European countries and Asia, Latin America and Africa during the Cold War.

International Conference

Zachęta – National Gallery of Art

Pl. Małachowskiego 3, 00–916 Warsaw

Thursday, 5 February 2026

9:30 a.m. Event opening and welcome by Agnieszka Pindera, director of the Zachęta – National Gallery of Art

Introduction by Wiktoria Szczupacka

10:00–11:30 a.m. Panel 1 Institutions [chair: Wiktoria Szczupacka]

Gabriela Świtek, CBWA

Terezie Nekvindová, A Distributed Exhibition State: Institutional Conditions of Organising Exhibitions Abroad in Czechoslovakia

Dorota Jarecka, Art Institution as Quilt: Global Transfers at the Galeria Studio in Warsaw discussion

11:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m. Coffee break

12:00–1:30 p.m. Panel 2 Geographies: Asia [chair: Zsuzsa László]

Thục Linh Nguyễn Vũ, The Socialist Postcolonial Moment: Vietnamese Art in Zachęta in the 1950s

Maija Koskinen, Formal and Informal Artistic Exchanges. Finnish Art in the Soviet Union and China in 1958: An Unorthodox Journey Across Planned and Improvised Venues

Hatice Özdoğan Türkyilmaz, Participation of Artists from Socialist European Countries in the First Two International Istanbul Biennials
discussion

1:30–3:00 p.m. Lunch break

3:00–4:30 p.m. Panel 3 Geographies: Asia [chair: Gabriela Świtek]

Simone Wille, South Asian Art and Artists in Central Europe: 1947–1989

Wiktoria Szczupacka, Between the People's Republic of Poland and India: Women Artists, Feminism, and the Exhibition at the BWA Gallery in Bydgoszcz in 1988

Justyna Balisz-Schmelz, India as an Imaginary Spiritual Home: Jerzy Cwiertnia's Work as an Early

Example of the “Eastward Turn” in Postwar Polish Artistic Theory and Practice
discussion

4:30–5:00 p.m. Coffee break

5:00–6:30 p.m. Panel 4 Geographies: Africa [chair: Pavlína Morganová]

Maja and Reuben Fowkes, Monumental Alignments with Revolutionary Ethiopia: Collaborative, Decolonial and Ecological Practices of Socialist Memorialisation

Katarzyna Falecka, On Artistic Exchanges between Algeria and the former Eastern Bloc

Paulina Banas, Publishing Living Egypt on Both Sides of the Cold War: Paul Strand’s Photography and the Networks of 1960s Art Publishing

Discussion

7:00–8:00 p.m. Curators’ tour of the What Are Our Collective Dreams? Global connections – abandoned friendships exhibition [curators: Taras Gembik, Joanna Kordjak, Antonina Stebur]

Friday, 6 February 2026

10:00–11:30 a.m. Panel 5 Geographies: Latin America [chair: Daniel Grůň]

Agata Jakubowska, Exhibitions of Mexican Women Artists in Europe: Feminism and Cultural Diplomacy

Karolina Zychowicz, Mexican Art as a Catalyst for Change: Exhibitions in Warsaw (1955) and Beijing (1956)

Jorge M Sanguino, The Legacy of Marcos Kurtycz: Three Decades of Contemporary Mexican Art discussion

11:30 a.m. –12:00 p.m. Coffee break

12:00–1:30 p.m. Panel 6 Geographies: Latin America [chair: Zsuzsa László]

Heloisa Espada, From Biromanticism to Concrete Art: Kázmér Fejér and the Connections Between Abstractionism in Brazil and Central Europe

Rado Ištók, Czechoslovakia at the 10th Bienial de São Paulo

Rada Georgieva, Beyond Alignment: Liuba Wolf at the São Paulo Biennial discussion

1:30–3:00 p.m. Lunch break

3:00–4:30 p.m. Panel 7 Geographies: Latin America [chair: Pavlína Morganová]

Juliane Debeusscher, Multidirectional Realisms: Antonio Berni in Socialist Europe (1956–1966)

Katarzyna Cytlak, Cultural Antropophagy: Angelo de Aquino’s Decolonial Dialogue with the Polish Artist Jarosław Kozłowski

Katerina Valdivia Bruch, Third World Solidarity: Transnational Cultural Encounters in 1970s Peru discussion

4:30–5:00 p.m. Coffee break

5:00–6:50 p.m. Panel 8 Geographies: Latin America [chair: Wiktoria Szczupacka]

Zsuzsa László, Divergent Attempts Towards a Transregional Profile of Art

Daniel Grůň, Cosmic Utopia as a Critique of Cold War Ideology? Július Koller and his Participation in International Mail Art Networks

Diego Renart González, A Dominican Artist in Poland: Silvano Lora and His Forbidden Exhibition in Warsaw

Dorota Jagoda Michalska, The Open Veins of The Earth: Władysław Hasior (1928–1999), Post-War Marxism and Decoloniality Between Poland and Uruguay
discussion

7:00–7:30 p.m. Closing remarks: New research directions

Zsuzsa László, Daniel Grůň, Pavlína Morganová; [chair: Gabriela Świtek]

Reference:

CONF: Global and Forgotten Connections (Zachęta, 5 Feb 26). In: ArtHist.net, Jan 23, 2026 (accessed Jun 16, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/51559>>.