Symposium: "The Silk Roads Rediscovered: Legend and Reality", online via Zoom, Friday March 20, 2026

(4:30-17:30 JST / 6:30-9:30 CET)

This international online symposium aims at investigating how the knowledge of Eurasian heritage acquired during the late nineteenth and much of the twentieth centuries have influenced the way in which many people worldwide came to understand the visual, material and textual legacies of the trans-Eurasian trade network called 'Silk Roads'. In co-organisation with Persica Centropa: Cosmopolitan Artefacts and Artifices in the Age of Crises, 1900-1950 (FWF Elise Richter Programme, V-995), this event is held in conjunction with the the four-day programme 'EurAsia-Tokyo Academy (17-20 March 2026), generously sponsored by the Cluster of Excellence 'EurAsia Transformations, in collaboration with the University of Tokyo and the Yokohama Museum of Eurasian Cultures.
