Russell Center, Old Faculty Club, University of Oklahoma, Mar 31–Apr 1, 2026

Emily Burns

“Remembrance + Renewal: Celebrating Ethiopian-Oklahoman Connections through Art,” on March 31 and April 1, 2026, is co-organized between the Russell Center, University of St. Andrews in Scotland, and the Gebre Kristos Desta Art Center in Addis Ababa, with co-sponsorship from the Black Artists of Oklahoma Project at the University of Oklahoma. Much of the program will focus on Gebre Kristos Desta (1932-1981), an Ethiopian modernist painter who returned to his preferred abstract style after moving to Lawton, Oklahoma as a political refugee. The keynote lecture will be given by Heran Sereke Brhan, Deputy Director of the Smithsonian National Museum of African Art. The program will also explore recent and current projects to celebrate the legacy of this artist, as well as other aspects of exchange between the state of Oklahoma and Ethiopia, including OSU's links with agricultural education in Ethiopia beginning in the 1950s, collecting Ethiopian art and material culture by Oklahomans, Ethiopian-American artists currently practicing in the state, and wider histories of modernisms and African diaspora.

Russell Center sessions will be livestreamed on Youtube at <https://www.youtube.com/@OUSchoolofVisualArts-i9z/>.
