Historians of Eighteenth-Century Art and Architecture

New Scholars Open Session

Session at the College Art Association Conference, Chicago

The Historians of Eighteenth-Century Art and Architecture (HECAA) invite paper proposals by advanced doctoral students and recent Ph.Ds that present innovative approaches to the interpretation of the art, architecture, and material culture of the global eighteenth century. Presenters selected for this session are expected to become members of HECAA before the conference.

Please submit a preliminary abstract and C.V. no later than May 6 to:
