Transnational Japanisms: Art, Craft, Design

This two-day conference will address the future of the study of art, craft and design in a transnational perspective. This event is held to honour the memory of Toshio Watanabe (1945-2025), late Emeritus Professor of Japanese Arts and Heritage at the Sainsbury Institute for the Study of Japanese Arts and Cultures, Founding Director of the Research Centre for Transnational Art, Identity and Nation (TrAIN) at University of the Arts London, and former President of the Japan Art History Forum.

The conference will be held across two venues – Friday 15 May at the Khalili Lecture Theatre, SOAS and Saturday 16 May at Chelsea College of Arts, UAL.

The conference will be livestreamed via Zoom across two days. All registrants will be given exclusive access to the Conference Attendee area on Monday 11 May, which includes the full programme, poster contributions and pre-recorded papers which can be viewed online. If you are interested in accessing any of this content, please sign up via the link below.
