

Solidarity with Nature (Sainsbury, 21–22 May 26)

Sainsbury Art Centre, University of East Anglia, May 21–22, 2026

Reuben Fowkes

The SAVA Conference on Solidarity with Nature asks how art history could be unlocked as a repository of the ecological heritage of socialism, explores the role of art practitioners in environmental movements, and considers how experimental art practices performed beyond-human solidarities and expanded the system's ecological horizons.

Conference registration is free of charge, but please email sava@uea.ac.uk to let us know that you plan to attend.
