

Doctoral Assistant, Faculty of Architecture, University of Liège

Oct 01, 2026

Application deadline: Sep 1, 2026

Silvia Groaz

The Faculty of Architecture of the University of Liège is recruiting as of 1 October 2026 1 full-time doctoral assistant.

Two-year appointment, renewable twice. Subject to approval by the ULiège Board of Directors.

Description of duties

- Pedagogical supervision of bachelor's students, in Blocks 1 and 3, and master's students, in Years 1 and 2, in courses related to architectural theory, architectural history, and visual culture from the 19th to the 21st century ; introduction to research.
- Contribution to and participation in administrative tasks related to teaching.
- Development of a doctoral research project examining the relationships between architecture, the arts, and visual culture from a contemporary perspective.

Admission requirements

- Hold a master's degree in architecture, art history, or a degree deemed equivalent.
- Have distinguished oneself during one's studies.
- A strong interest in issues relating to architectural theory and history, visual culture, and contemporary art, with a focus on the 20th and 21st centuries.
- Ability to articulate a critical and reflective approach in both teaching and research.
- Strong motivation for teaching and research.
- Proficiency in French and English is required.

Applications must be submitted by midnight on 1 September 2026.

Candidates are invited to submit the following by email to Silvia Groaz (silvia.groaz@uliege.be) and Éric Le Coguiec (eric.lecoguiec@uliege.be):

- a curriculum vitae;
- a cover letter;
- a portfolio, if available, maximum 15 images;
- a three-page research project including: research question, proposed methodology, and bibliography;
- two letters of recommendation.

Following the submission of applications, and depending on your application file, you may be contacted for an interview organized during the week of 15 September 2026.

ArtHist.net

For any questions, please contact:

Silvia Groaz – silvia.groaz@uliege.be

Éric Le Coguiec – eric.lecoguiec@uliege.be

Reference:

JOB: Doctoral Assistant, Faculty of Architecture, University of Liège. In: ArtHist.net, Jul 1, 2026 (accessed Jul 1, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/52853>>.