

Special James Ensor issue of Nineteenth-Century Art Worldwide

Petra Chu

NCAW Summer 2026, Vol. 25, Issue 2

Special Issue: Reconsidering James Ensor's Work in National and Transnational Contexts

Herwig Todts and Cathérine Verleysen, Editors

TOC:

Foreword

by Luk Lemmens and Carmen Willems

Introduction

by Herwig Todts

Articles

James Ensor's Vision and the Social Narrative of Light

by Susan M. Canning

Positioning the Artist: James Ensor's Use of Humor in His Self-Portraits

by Lotte Kremer

The Delirious Aesthetics of James Ensor

by H. R. Blakeley

James Ensor's La petite Chinoise: A Case Study of Modernist Chinoiserie

by Petra ten-Doesschate Chu

The Feasts of War: Ensor's Comical Repast (Feast of the Lean)

by Alison Hokanson

Connecting James Ensor and Edvard Munch: Vittorio Pica as a Champion of Two Eccentric Artists

by Patricia G. Berman

James Ensor's Friendship with Erich Heckel During World War I

by Lieven Van Den Abeele

Ensor's Agents and Collectors After 1920 and the Liquidation of His Estate upon His Death

by Sabine Taevernier

Reference:

TOC: Special James Ensor issue of Nineteenth-Century Art Worldwide. In: ArtHist.net, Jul 17, 2026 (accessed Jul 17, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/53496>>.