

ITALIAN ART SOCIETY KRESS TRAVEL AND PUBLICATION GRANTS

Application deadline: Oct 7, 2013

, Case Western Reserve University

The Italian Art Society is pleased to announce this year's competition for three awards to assist scholars working on Italian art of any period.

IAS Travel Grants: two grants will be awarded to grad students or recent PhDs presenting papers on Italian art at a major conference in 2014.

IAS-Kress Travel Grant: one grant will be awarded to support a U.S. or foreign scholar, with a PhD, travelling from outside the US to present a paper in an IAS-sponsored session at a major conference in 2014.

IAS Research and Publication Grant: one grant to fund or subsidize a research trip or publication relating to the study of any aspect of the architecture or visual arts of Italy, from the prehistoric period to the present day.

Full information about the travel and research grants is available on the IAS website:

<http://italianartsociety.org/>

For further questions about the grants, please contact awards@italianartsociety.org

REFERENCE:

STIP: Italian Art Society Kress Travel and Publication Grants. In: ArtHist.net, May 30, 2013 (accessed May 24, 2019), <<https://arthist.net/archive/5480>>.