Wolverhampton Art Gallery, Sep 27, 2013

Deadline: Aug 9, 2013

Connie Wan, WOLVERHAMPTON ART GALLERY

Women and Pop Art

Friday 27 September 2013

10.30AM – 4.30PM

Exploring themes around women and Pop Art, this interdisciplinary symposium aims to establish and reassess their role and contribution to the movement. Held in conjunction with 'Pauline Boty: Pop Artist and Woman', the keynote lecture will be given by the exhibition's co-curator Dr Sue Tate. Other invited speakers include Althea Greenan from the Women's Art Library, art historian Kalliopi Minioudaki, PhD, and artist Caroline Coon.

We invite proposals for 20 minute papers that explore the theme of women and Pop art. Please send abstracts (no longer than 300 words) accompanied by a short biography (100 words) to: connie.wan@wolverhampton.gov.uk by Friday 9 August. Submissions from postgraduate students and researchers working within art history and related disciplines are encouraged.

To book, please contact Wolverhampton Art Gallery on 01902 552055 to book or visit: <http://www.eventbrite.co.uk/event/6241176527#>
