

Charles C. Eldredge Prize in American art history

Deadline: Dec 1, 2013

Elizabeth Willson, Smithsonian American Art Museum

The Smithsonian American Art Museum invites nominations for the 2014 Charles C. Eldredge Prize, an annual award for outstanding scholarship in American art history. Single-author books devoted to any aspect of the visual arts of the United States and published in the three previous calendar years are eligible. To nominate a book, send a letter explaining the work's significance to the field of American art history and discussing the quality of the author's scholarship and methodology. Self-nominations and nominations by publishers are not permitted.

The deadline for nominations is December 1, 2013. Please send them to: The Charles C. Eldredge Prize, Research and Scholars Center, Smithsonian American Art Museum, P.O. Box 37012, MRC 970, Washington, D.C. 20013-7012. Nominations will also be accepted by email: eldredge@si.edu or fax: (202) 633-8373.

Further information about the prize may be found at americanart.si.edu/research/awards/eldredge.
