Summer School: Court Residences as Places of Exchange (Utrecht, 30 Jun-9 Jul 14)

Utrecht, Jun 30–Jul 9, 2014
Deadline: Mar 1, 2014

Pieter Martens, Brussels

Summer School: "Court Residences as Places of Exchange in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe (III)"

The call for participation is now open. Applications are invited by 1 March 2014.

The summer school will focus on the late medieval and early modern European court residence or ‘palace’ in an interdisciplinary perspective. Participation in the summer school is free and open to students from all nationalities. It is specifically aimed at Research Master students and PhD students in history, architectural history, art history, archaeology and related disciplines. The school offers lectures by an international and interdisciplinary group of experts, as well as field trips to various castles and residences in the Netherlands. The lectures will deal with residences from all over Europe; the field trips will focus on the most relevant examples in the Low Countries.

For more information see the PALATIUM website (www.courtresidences.eu)
