

Arts of China Consortium at AAS (Philadelphia, 29 Mar 14)

Philadelphia, Mar 29, 2014

Nixi Cura, Christie's Education

All are welcome to attend the Arts of China Consortium (ACC) meeting-in-conjunction at the Association for Asian Studies Annual Conference (AAS) in Philadelphia:

Saturday, 29 March, 1:00-2:30 PM
Philadelphia Marriott, Room 307.

Our meeting agenda will include brief reports on ACC business (officers, membership, the listserv, and ACC web site), followed by short presentations:

Nixi Cura (Christie's Education London) on the Chinese Art Research Network, UK

Monica Merlin (Tate Research Centre, Asia-Pacific)

"Where are the women? Chinese art, research and new institutional trends"

Katherine Tsiang (University of Chicago) on digital imaging resources developed by the Center for the Art of East Asia (the "Scrolling Paintings" and Xiangtangshan projects).

We invite you to bring your lunch and laptops (to browse the Chicago web pages; the iPad app might not be ready by this week) to what we hope will be a lively informal gathering.

Attendance at this ACC meeting does not require AAS registration.
