Fellowships at The Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York)

The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, Sep 1, 2015–Aug 31, 2016
Application deadline: Nov 7, 2014

Academic Programs

Art History Fellowships are offered for PhD candidates, postdoctoral researchers, and senior museum professionals interested in furthering their scholarly research within one of the Museum's curatorial departments. Working with supervisors and departmental staff, fellows are able to utilize the Museum's collections as a way to expand their own research and dialogue about art in their field. Throughout their time at the Museum fellows may contribute to departmental projects that complement their research. They will also share their research at the spring fellows' colloquia in which they give a brief presentation on their work in progress. All fellowships must take place between September 1, 2015, and August 31, 2016. The stipend amount for one year is $42,000 for senior fellows and $32,000 for pre-doctoral fellows, with up to an additional $6,000 for travel. Health care benefits are included.

http://www.metmuseum.org/research/internships-and-fellowships/fellowships

Reference:
STIP: Fellowships at The Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York). In: ArtHist.net, Sep 16, 2014 (accessed Nov 7, 2026), <https://arthist.net/archive/8404>.