American and German Libraries and Archives & the Contemporary Artist's Book - A Transatlantic Colloquium

Veranstalter: Initiative Fortbildung für wissenschaftliche Spezialbibliotheken und verwandte Einrichtungen e.V. in association with ARLIS/NA and the Deutsches Buch- und Schriftmuseum

From the early 1960s, librarians have been confronted by the phenomenon of the artist's book – where the artist has used the book format as her or his medium, in contra-distinction to the livre d'artiste, where the artist was the provider of designs or layouts to a pre-existing text written by somebody else. Even the definition of the artist's book proved and still proves controversial.

This colloquium aims to share good practice in the USA and Germany to address the exciting but sometimes unnerving challenges the artist's book still poses 50 years on.
