

Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship

Deadline: Dec 31, 2014

Helena Karabatsos, Chicago, IL

The Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship, a joint program of the Society of Architectural Historians (SAH) and the National Park Service's Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS), permits an architectural historian to work on a 12-week HABS project during the summer. The Fellow will prepare a written history to become part of the permanent HABS collection focusing on either a specific nationally-significant building/site, or a broader architectural history topic that will inform future HABS documentation. The Fellow will be selected by a jury of two SAH members and one HABS representative. The Fellow will be stationed in the field working in conjunction with a HABS measured drawings team, or in the HABS Washington, D.C. office.

The Award

The Sally Kress Tompkins/HABS award includes a $10,000 stipend and will be presented during the Society's Annual Conference in April. The award will be announced in the Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians and the SAH Newsletter after the presentation.

Reporting Requirements

In addition to the final project/written history, recipients are required to upload a minimum of 50 images to the SAHARA image database.

Criteria for Application

Applicants should be pursuing graduate studies in architectural history or other related fields. You do not have to be a member of SAH to apply for this fellowship, but membership is strongly encouraged.

Application Details

Applications for the 2015 Sally Kress Tompkins/HABS award will open on August 1, 2014. Applications must be postmarked by December 31, 2014.
